REPORTS FROM ELECTED OFFICIALS

Supervisor Murphy shared that COVID testing took place on Saturday, January 8th and tested 250+ people. There will be another testing even on Saturday, January 29th. Vaccination days will be scheduled in the gym. Supervisor Murphy further shared that the employees of the townships will be participating in zoom calls on Fridays to discuss what's going on in the offices.

Trustee Toscas reported that the budgets have been posted at the Township and are also in the paper.

Trustee Lewandowski said the seniors are loving the fitness program. The bingo players must show their vaccination card.

Trustee Sexton-Kelly commented that volleyball is going wonderfully. COVID has caused cancellations but the games will be made up. Babysitting class and game nights will be back in February with participants all masked up. YSB is still using telehealth. They have also been having a hard time finding new therapists.

Commissioner Moody congratulated Assessor Murphy. She also reported that the Highway Department has been filling potholes, plowing and salting.

Assessor Murphy shared they are still waiting on the Board of Review to open up appeals.
