REPORTS FROM ELECTED OFFICIALS

Trustee Hurckes is happy with the tuckpointing project. It's not as bad as they thought and the Township will be getting money back from the construction.

Trustee Sexton-Kelly shared that volleyball will be starting in a few weeks. The Santas room and Christmas Cares are also coming up in December.

Commissioner Moody shared that the Highway Department is busy with fixing potholes and getting ready for winter.

Commissioner Murphy reported that the Township opened up for appeals last Wednesday. Tax bills went out three weeks ago. Worth Township will be processing appeals through December 6th. The deadline to appeal is December 11th.

Supervisor Murphy announced that the Secretary of State mobile unit was a great event. There were over 100 vets at the Veterans luncheon. They ate and danced, and WGN came by and did a story on the luncheon.
