REPORTS FROM ELECTED OFFICIALS

Supervisor Murphy shared that the park is nearly complete. The fencing is down and the grand opening will be in June. Also on the schedule for the month of June is a blood drive on June 20th, Evergreen Park parade June 28th and the Oak Lawn parade on June 29th. The Township hosted a resource fair on May 15th that was attended by over 300 residents. It was a great success.

Trustee Lewandowski remarked that Energy Services has been very busy. The senior room will be going on an architectural tour downtown with lunch at Pompeii in Little Italy.

Trustee Sexton-Kelly reported that summer camp will run from June 24-August 2. Registration is open until June 3rd. They have lots of field trips and swimming planned.

Commissioner Moody informed the board that the Highway Department has been busy cutting grass, fixing potholes, picking up branches and installing speed bumps at the request of the residents.

Trustee Toscas said the finance department has been busy paying the bills. He also shared the date of the golf outing, which is September 27th.
