REPORTS FROM ELECTED OFFICIALS

Supervisor Murphy informed the board about a few of the programs that happened at the Township over the last month. The secretary of state came to the Township for license renewals. They would like to return 3-4 times a year. The blood drive was a huge success with over 40 people attending. Supervisor Murphy also shared that the Evergreen Park parade will be June 28th at 6:30 pm and the Oak Lawn parade is June 29th at 4:00.

Trustee Lewandowski reported that Energy Services will be taking appointments until August. The senior room is very busy with trips. The architecture boat tour in Chicago was enjoyed by all.

Trustee Sexton-Kelly shared that day camp started Monday, July 2nd. A new activity this year is pen pals. The campers are writing letters to the seniors and decorating their mailboxes. Youth Services Bureau is continuing with telehealth.

Trustee Toscas announced that the Foundation has some events coming up. Charlie & Company is August 15th from 4:30-7:30 and the golf outing is scheduled for September 27th in Hickory Hills.

Commissioner Moody said the Highway department is busy with mowing and branch pickup.
