REPORTS FROM ELECTED OFFICIALS

Supervisor Murphy reported that the backpack giveaway served 300+ children. Children were able to go from table to table and do their own back to school ‘shopping’. Supervisor Murphy also shared that the park dedication will be September 9th at 4 pm. She informed everyone that the Township has purchased a third van that will arrive at the Township in two weeks. The Township currently employs 4 drivers and is looking to hire more. Also, the car is now owned by the Township. There will be a salute to the armed forces event on October 11 from 10-12. 159 people are attending so far.

Trustee Hurckes acknowledged the passing of former Trustee Pat Hanlon. He mentioned that the new township signs and awnings are coming soon.
