REPORTS FROM ELECTED OFFICIALS

Supervisor Murphy shared that Sheriff Dart was at the Township for taillight replacement. There were 67 appointments. The summer camp kids were also given a tour of the Sheriff Departments mobile unit.
August 6th will be the back-to-school supply giveaway. This year will be a little different in that residents will be able to 'shop' for supplies instead of being given already filled backpacks. There are enough supplies for 450 children. Supervisor Murphy also reported that the Township is adding a third bus to the senior transportation fleet by next month.

Trustee Hurckes reported that the Township has requested a CDBG grant for a new entrance to the senior room.

Trustee Lewandowski said there will be some AARP classes this week for seniors. The seniors also have a train trip to East Troy, WI with lunch planned as well as a Thunderbolts game on August 1st.

Trustee Sexton-Kelly stated that camp is going wonderfully. Youth Commission is looking to add some new programs for fall.

Trustee Toscas mentioned that the Foundation is sponsoring a Motown Review with Charles & Co.
August 16th and the golf outing September 29th.
