REPORTS FROM ELECTED OFFICIALS

Supervisor Murphy shared that there will be a blood drive Thursday, June 25th. Township resident Sonny Esch spoke about the blood drive. He mentioned that last year had 65-70 people and they are hoping to double that. August 5th will be the backpack event and Supervisor Murphy also discussed that there will be music and food trucks in the parking lot when school supplies are being handed out. Supervisor Murphy also asked Township Manager Katie Elwood to give an update on the parking lot project. She reported that they have started grading and the sewers at the Township and Highway are new. The Township parking lot should be done in June. The project is going well and is under budget.

Trustee Pratl reported that the seniors are attending a Thunderbolts game on Wednesday, May 27th.

Assessor Murphy said that the exemptions are done. The staff is currently working on certificate of errors.
